

HEBREWS 13:1-6

1.) COMPASSION (V. 1-2)

- a.) First Evidence: “Let brotherly love continue” (v. 1)
(1 Peter 1:22; 1 John 4:7; 11-12, 20-21) (Matthew 5:23-24)
- b.) Second Evidence: “Exercise hospitality” (v. 2)

2.) CONFLICT (V. 3-4)

- a.) One of the greatest conflicts of all ages (v. 4): (2 Samuel 12:14)
- b.) Every follower of Christ is called to esteem marriage as highly valuable (v. 4)
- c.) Five ways to honor the marriages around you:
  - 1.) Honor your child’s marriage by picturing a special future.
  - 2.) Honor your adult Child’s marriage by separating from him or her
  - 3.) Honor newlyweds and seasoned couples by encouraging quality time
  - 4.) Honor couples in crisis by advocating for both spouses
  - 5.) Honor senior couples by recognizing their commitment and follow their example

3.) CONTENTMENT (V. 5)

- a.) God will never desert us, abandon us, or leave us lifeless or destitute.
(Genesis 28:15; Deuteronomy 31:6; Joshua 1:5; 1 Chronicles 28:20; Isaiah 41:17)

4.) COURAGE (V. 6)

- a.) Because God will stand beside us, we have nothing to fear.

“To experience genuine love, we must choose. We must decide. Of our own free will and choice, we must open our hearts and receive God, The lover of our souls.”

PRAISE CENTER CHURCH

3105 W. FLORIDA AVE DENVER CO 80219 (303) 922-1131

SUN. 2-14-2016